

EMPHASIS

ON EMERGENCY MEDICINE IN TEXAS

NEWSLETTER: SEPTEMBER 2016

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Heather Owen, MD, FACEP
President

We are through the dog days of summer and heading into Fall! While I cherish the summertime and getting to spend so much time with my family, there is something very exciting about the new school year and the routine that it brings. The fall also reminds me of new beginnings...

Government Relations Committee

REPORT

*Diana Fite, MD, FACEP
Chair, Government Relations Committee*

It was mentioned in our last EMphasis issue report for the Government Relations Committee that we would be writing about the balanced billing issue over and over again because it is such an important issue, yet a difficult one to understand and particularly difficult to explain in a positive light to the legislators and in a way to show that we are advocating for our patients first and foremost. It is essential for all physicians to retain...

With the school year about to start up again, the TTUHSC Lubbock EMIG is geared up for another successful year! Our EMIG ensures that students are exposed to the field of emergency medicine by providing shadowing opportunities, hosting ER guest speakers, and showing emergency documentaries. In addition, this year, we hope to have...

REPORT

Written by Alexandra Huckabee, Edited by Teresa Dunphy

While the 2015-2016 year was a successful year for the Student Society of Emergency Medicine (SSEM) at McGovern Medical School (formerly UT Houston), we are excited to begin a new year. SSEM is a nonprofit charitable organization designated to facilitate, enrich, and expand the emergency medicine interests of its members by providing access to practical skills sessions, research opportunities, community outreach opportunities, shadowing experiences in emergency departments, and mentorship with...
